Description

Robsons are delighted to bring to the market this stunning 2 bedroom 2 bathroom ground floor apartment set within this unique development of just five modern luxury apartments in the heart of Northwood, built by boutique local developer Sterling Rose Homes. The level of detailed execution for a development of this nature is unheard of in this locality. These modern apartments are designed to provide central London style and flair to the suburbs. The Mansion is perfectly located as an outer-city haven, with the ability to drive to numerous local amenities within minutes, also allowing quick access to Central London via Northwood Station which is of very close proximity.

NB. The photos shown are from the show flat to give an indication of the specification and style.

Location

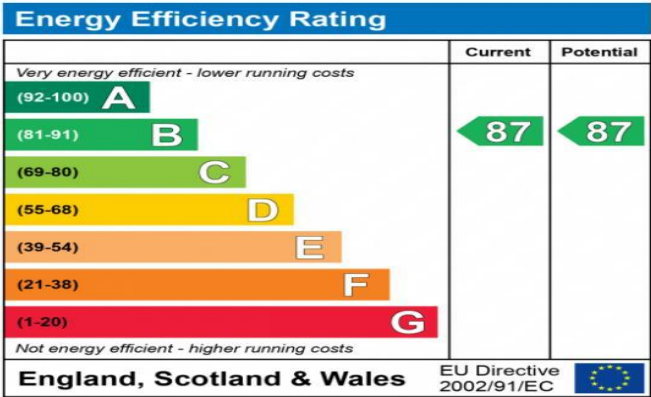

The Mansion is perfectly situated on Eastbury Avenue. It benefits from a short walk to local amenities and the underground station which is of very close proximity. The area displays a village-like atmosphere while allowing quick access to Central London. Northwood has a lot to offer, including a number of restaurants to satisfy all palettes. Embracing the outdoors couldn't be easier. There are various woodlands, nature reserves and golf courses located within a few mile radius of Eastbury Avenue. Also, David Lloyd's Riverside Health and Racquet Club is an excellent option for their gym and fitness amenities. Add to this a choice of local cricket, bowls, tennis and football clubs and there is something for all sport enthusiasts.
