Dalzell, Village Way, Little Chalfont, Buckinghamshire, HP7 9PU

Located on one of the area's most sought after private roads, Dalzell is an impeccably restored period home that beautifully balances original character with refined contemporary living. Originally dating over 100 years, the property retains a wealth of original features including exposed beams and elegant panelled reception room. Thoughtfully restored and enhanced by the current owners over the past 25 years, every intervention has been carefully considered to preserve the integrity of the original house while introducing contemporary comforts. Positioned within a short walk of the village amenities and station, and close to the highly regarded Dr Challoner's High School and the boy's grammar school in nearby Amersham, the house offers both convenience and an enviable setting. A welcoming entrance hall leads to four elegant reception rooms and study. At the heart of the home is a timeless Martin Moore hand-painted kitchen including a modern Aga oven, with handmade Fired Earth terracotta tiled flooring leading into an oak-framed garden room with doors opening onto a courtyard laid with reclaimed York flagstones. The first floor provides five bedrooms, including a striking oak-vaulted guest suite with separate staircase access and en-suite bathroom, alongside four further bedrooms, three with ensuite facilities, in addition to a family bathroom. To the front, a gravel driveway provides ample parking framed by a lawned garden, while the landscaped rear garden offers a wonderful sense of privacy and tranquillity. Private road contribution - £200 pa.
